

BJERKE ARCHITECTS PLLC

Susan D. Bjerke, AIA

Susan, as the principal and managing owner of Bjerke Architects, is involved in all projects and business matters of the firm. Her commitment to the profession runs the full spectrum of the building industry.

She began her architectural career working in facilities maintenance for the State of Montana, fostering an interest in building materials and the long term performance of those materials and systems. Carrying that interest forward into the creation of her private firm, has earned Bjerke Architects a reputation for solid, buildable designs within the Owner's budget.

Her involvement in projects includes all phases from the first Client Contact through Construction Administration.
